CONFESSION & FORGIVENESS

Blessed be the holy Trinity, ✠ one God,
the Creator of heaven and earth,
the Word who spoke life into being,
the Wind stirring the waters. Amen.

Let us turn in confession to the one who knows us completely.

Silence is kept for reflection.

Mighty God, lover of justice,
you call us to life in community,
but we have served our own interests
at the expense of our neighbors.
We have sown deceit where honesty was needed.
We say the right words,
but our hearts are far from you.
Turn us to seek your face.
Knit us together and give us the mind of Christ,
that we may do justice, love mercy,
and walk humbly with you, our God. Amen.

The former things have passed away,
and new things God now declares:
God covers you in the righteousness of Christ,
and forgives your sin in ✠ Jesus' name.
May the Spirit give you strength to live for others,
and bless you with the gift of peace. Amen.

The musical score is written for a two-part setting (Soprano and Bass) in the key of D major (two sharps). It consists of three systems of music, each with a vocal line and a basso continuo line. The lyrics are printed below the vocal line of each system. The first system contains three verses of the hymn. The second system contains two verses. The third system contains two verses. The music is in a simple, hymn-like style with a clear melody and harmonic support.

WORD

FIRST READING

read by: Gabe Haughie

Micah 6:6-8

- ⁶ “With what shall I come before the Lord
and bow myself before God on high?
Shall I come before him with burnt offerings,
with calves a year old?
⁷ Will the Lord be pleased with thousands of rams,
with ten thousands of rivers of oil?
Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression,
the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?”
⁸ He has told you, O mortal, what is good,
and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God?

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM

read by: Christian Burkholder

Psalm 119:105-112

¹⁰⁵ Your word is a lamp to my feet
and a light to my path.

¹⁰⁶ I have sworn an oath and confirmed it,
to observe your righteous ordinances.

¹⁰⁷ I am severely afflicted;
give me life, O Lord, according to your word.

¹⁰⁸ Accept my offerings of praise, O Lord,
and teach me your ordinances.

¹⁰⁹ I hold my life in my hand continually,
but I do not forget your law.

¹¹⁰ The wicked have laid a snare for me,
but I do not stray from your precepts.

¹¹¹ Your decrees are my heritage forever;
they are the joy of my heart.

¹¹² I incline my heart to perform your statutes forever, to the end.

CHILDREN'S MESSAGE AND SECOND READING

Acts 16:16-40 New International readers Version

Paul: Sam Nienstedt
Slave Owner: Christian Burkholder
Judge: Ilesh Subedi

Silas: Gabe Haughie
Slave Owner: Aslan Shives
Jailer: Kai Thompson

Paul writes: ¹⁶ One day we, Paul and Silas, were going to the place of prayer. On the way we were met by a female slave. She had a spirit that helped her to tell ahead of time what was going to happen. She earned lot of money for her owners by telling fortunes. ¹⁷ The woman followed Paul and the rest of us around. She shouted, “These men serve the Most High God. They are telling you how to be saved.” ¹⁸ She kept this up for many days. Finally Paul became upset. Turning around, he spoke to the spirit. “In the name of Jesus Christ,” he said, “I command you to come out of her!” At that very moment the spirit left her.

¹⁹ The female slave’s owners realized that their hope of making money was gone. So they grabbed Paul and Silas. They dragged them into the market place to face the authorities. ²⁰ They brought them to the judges. “These men are Jews,” her owners said. “They are making trouble in our city. ²¹ They are suggesting practices that are against Roman law. These are practices we can’t accept or take part in.”

²² The crowd joined the attack against Paul and Silas. The judges ordered that Paul and Silas be stripped and beaten. ²³ They were whipped without mercy. Then they were thrown into prison. The jailer was commanded to guard them carefully. ²⁴ When he received his orders, he put Paul and Silas deep inside the prison. He fastened their feet so they couldn’t get away.

²⁵ About midnight Paul and Silas were praying. They were also singing hymns to God. The other prisoners were listening to them. ²⁶ Suddenly there was a powerful earthquake. It shook the prison from top to bottom. All at once the prison doors flew open. Everybody’s chains came loose.

²⁷ The jailer woke up. He saw that the prison doors were open. He pulled out his sword and was going to kill himself. He thought the prisoners had escaped. ²⁸ “Don’t harm yourself! Paul shouted. “We are all here!”

²⁹ The jailer called out for some lights. He rushed in, shaking with fear. He fell down in front of Paul and Silas. ³⁰ Then he brought them out. He asked, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?”

³¹ They replied, “Believe in the Lord Jesus. Then you and your family will be saved.” ³² They spoke the word of the Lord to him. They also spoke to all the others in his house.

³³ At that hour of the night, the jailer took Paul and Silas and washed their wounds. Right away he and his whole family were baptized. ³⁴ The jailer brought them into his house. He set a meal in front of them. He and his whole family were filled with joy. They had become believers in God.

³⁵ Early in the morning the judges sent their officers to the jailer. They ordered him, "Let those men go." ³⁶ The jailer told Paul, "The judges have ordered me to set you and Silas free. You can leave now. Go in peace."

³⁷ But Paul replied to the officers. "They beat us in public," he said. "We weren't given a trial. And we are Roman citizens! They threw us into prison. And now do they want to get rid of us quietly? No! Let them come themselves and personally lead us out."

³⁸ The officers reported this to the judges. When the judges heard that Paul and Silas were Roman citizens, they became afraid. ³⁹ So they came and said they were sorry. They led them out of the prison. Then they asked them to leave the city. ⁴⁰ After Paul and Silas came out of the prison, they went to Lydia's house. There they met with the believers. They told them to be brave. Then they left.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

GOSPEL

Matthew 5:13-20

The holy gospel according to St. Matthew the 5th chapter.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said: ¹³ “You are the salt of the earth, but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything but is thrown out and trampled under foot.

¹⁴ “You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. ¹⁵ People do not light a lamp and put it under the bushel basket; rather, they put it on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. ¹⁶ In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven.

¹⁷ “Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have come not to abolish but to fulfill. ¹⁸ For truly I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not one letter, not one stroke of a letter, will pass from the law until all is accomplished. ¹⁹ Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. ²⁰ For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.”

The gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

Please be seated.

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge
the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION Read by Sam Nienstedt and Ilesh Subedi

Merciful God, you have called us to be the light of the world.

We come before you in prayer, trusting in your compassion and grace.

We pray for your Church, gathered in many places and traditions.

Strengthen us to let the light of Christ shine through our words and actions, that our communities may see your love lived out in service, kindness, and truth.

Merciful God, receive our prayer.

We give thanks for Scouts and Scout leaders,
and their commitment to serve and learn with integrity.
Guide them as they grow in character and leadership, and help them use their gifts to bring light and hope into the world.
Merciful God, receive our prayer.

We pray for our community and all who live and work here.
Help us to notice the needs around us,
to stand for justice, to offer help freely,
and to reflect the light of Christ in everyday acts of love.
Merciful God, receive our prayer.

We pray for peace in our world.
Where there is conflict, bring understanding;
where there is violence, bring restraint;
where there is fear, let your light overcome the darkness.
Merciful God, receive our prayer.

We remember before you all who are sick, injured, or recovering,
those who are lonely, grieving, or in distress.
Surround them with your healing presence and strengthen those who care for them.
Merciful God, receive our prayer.

We pray for those who are homeless, especially in this season of cold and dangerous weather.
Provide warmth, shelter, and safety,
and move our hearts to respond with compassion.
Merciful God, receive our prayer.

We commend to you all for whom we pray,
trusting in your mercy made known through Jesus Christ,
the light that no darkness can overcome. Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

Jesus, as you taught us, we are bold to pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

SENDING

BLESSING

May the triune God,
who has put a new song in your mouth
and tuned your heart for praise ✠ bless you now and forever.
Amen.
